

Direct one appointment resin bonding

Patient presented with abrasion to the upper three teeth just left of center. These teeth had one appointment bonding placed with a resin bonding material which will change color with the teeth when the patient decides to do post appointment whitening. Most standard bonding resins will not change color as the teeth are whitened.

